- Champlain Bridge is open

Operational Information:

- CIG OSINT has observed social media posts by @Personal associated to Personal that suggest he does not believe that the Freedom Convoy 2022 has reached any agreement with the City of Ottawa to contain the protests.^[i] On 2022-02-13, @Personal stated in a Twitter post that, “No deal has been struck, the federal government has not yet lifted its mandates and passports...” Social media posts made by third-parties involving @Personal suggest that he stated, “if they want to negotiate, great, then we’ll start piling on other demands.”^{[ii] [iii] [iv]}
- According to CIG OSINT, Personal Info., reported in CIG update is an influential Montreal-area podcaster with a YouTube channel called l’Union Fait la Force. Personal has been providing logistical support and organizational know-how to protestors at Coventry Road. Personal provides updates to his 21,000+ social media followers on Facebook.^[v]
- CIG OSINT has identified a social media post believed to be made by Person Personal Info., which has been shared by a third-party on Twitter (@Personal Info.) at approximately 1000 hrs.^[vi] In the post, the user @Personal Info. (known alias of Personal Info.) can be seen reacting to recent news suggesting that PM TRUDEAU may be in discussions to implement the Emergencies Act. Personal Info. claims that such a move would result in “attacks on our own citizens to intensify dramatically.” Analytical Note: This appears to suggest that Personal Info. is claiming that the Government or law enforcement will begin using harsher means of controlling the Freedom Convoy 2022 protest.^[vii]

- Nil updates at this time.

Protective Clients and Protective Sites:

- Nil updates at this time.

Communications:

- COMMS identified a tweet to the effect that 11 people have been arrested at the Coutts Border (Alberta) and seized a number of firearms. This enforcement action is allegedly taken as a result of the expectation that the PM was soon to invoke the “Emergencies Act”.
